If I find something ventory I will give you a call. Your name is? And What is the best time to reach you? |

WORKING WITH ANOTHER AGENT

Associate: That's terrific that you are working with another agent. I am curious; this home you have called about, it's in the MLS. Did your agent suggest you spend your time calling about homes from ads?

So, are you committed to that agent or just working with that agent? (If they don't know, explain the difference. If they need you to explain they are not committed, so go for an appointment.)

It really matters who represents your interest in the purchase of your next home. It matters in service, communication, price you pay for the home, what home you select, short-term and long-term, appreciation, smoothness of transaction, timeliness of the closing.

All these are influenced by who you work with as an agent. That's why I ask you up front about who you were working with because of my concern. That's why I would like to meet with you so you can compare your options of service.

JUST LOOKING/NOT READY FOR A REALTOR

1. Associate: I certainly understand that you are probably in the information gathering stage would that be correct?

Let me ask you this, if you found something you really liked then what would happen?

So it might prompt you from just looking to move right into buying. Is that what I am hearing?

Rather than doing that or an impulse as many buyers do I merely want to share with you a Market Trends Report so you know clearly the market numbers, inventory levels, sales, absorption rates, so as you are looking you can see what real values based on the state of the market and the trends of where the market is heading to. It only takes a few minutes but it will save you thousands when you decide the timing is right for you.

2. Associate: That's just fine that you are just looking. You might be interested to know that's the stage that a good Realtor can add a lot of value.

If we could spend a few minutes together, I can save you some time and help you avoid some of the pit falls that many people make in the "just looking stage." I can direct you to some resources and websites that will make the looking stage you are in more productive and fun.

EXACT ADDRESS

1. Associate: I would be happy to give you the address... Wow that is a really great home. I am familiar with that home and I know that you will want to see the inside as well. This will help you avoid an extra trip and extra time.

By waiting to drive by then booking an appointment to see the inside you can often lose the opportunity of the best homes.

| CLOSE OPTION | | YOU SAY: |

| Alternate of Choice | → | I could meet at or if that isn't convenient then I am also open at Does either of those work? |
| Direct Option | → | Let's meet at |
| Permission Close | → | When is best this week for you? |

2. Associate: I would be happy to give you the address. If this home isn't right for you, if you can share with me what's important to you I can suggest some other properties that we have that you can view online, drive by and preview. Can you describe the home you are wanting?

What features are important to you?

WON'T GIVE OUT NAME

Associate: I know exactly how you feel. I understand no one wants to feel pressured. If a really good buy comes up, is that something you would want to know about?

Because the best values just happen they are unplanned. The most important service I offer a buyer is gaining them access to that inside world then show them how to secure a home in it. Suppose such a home becomes available. How can I reach you?

Sir or maim, would you allow me to share something with you please? I wouldn't take up your time or mine unless I felt that I could be of service to you. I would not want to waste your time. I can sense your apprehension about giving out your name and number because you are fearful of being bugged or pestered by a salesperson trying to sell you or sell you something you don't want... Do I have that about right? I really don't operate that way. I specialize in finding the best values in the marketplace for any clients; so let's spend a few minutes focusing on that. Tell me what you are really looking for in a home?
